

Privacy Matters

When capturing information for an issue you need to send to the Service Centre or CIS staff to investigate, remember to remove any personal health information prior to sharing or sending. Keep in mind that these staff are not providing care to the patients and do not have a need to know their personal health information.