

Privacy Matters

Did you know that individuals have the right to request an audit of who has accessed their chart in CIS? This type of request would typically be directed to the privacy office and the Access to Information and Privacy (ATIP) team would provide the information to the person making the request. If the individual has any concerns about accesses identified on the audit report, the ATIP team will conduct an investigation to ensure there were no unauthorized accesses